Occasionally Pulled Her Hair and Kicked Her.

SOMETIMES SLAPPED HER.

WIVES OF THE DAUGHTER OF THE LATE GENERAL KIRKHAM.

She Had Aspirations to Be Something Higher in the Alleged Social Scale Than Her American Sisters—The Experience Novel and Costly—A Sign Post.

LONDON, July 28.—In the high court of justice before Sir Francis Henry James, presiding judge, the suit for divorce brought by Walter Yarde-Buller against Mrs. Yarde-Buller, a daughter of the late General Kirkham of San Francisco, was resumed.

Yarde-Buller, according to the wife's testimony, was declared bankrupt in 1884, after which he and wife went to the United States, visiting her friends. While in America Yarde-Buller wrote a confession regarding his conduct towards her and her father, which confession was witnessed by Mr. Majorbanks, their lawyer. All this time Kirkham was supplying Mrs. Yarde-Buller with money for her support.

Yarde-Buller returned to England in 1891 and eleven months later the wife rejoined him. She went to Churston and found during her absence many of her belongings had been sold. General Kirkham, Mrs. Yarde-Buller also stated, advanced $2,000 to be expended at Churston.

Mrs. Yarde-Buller testified that her husband left her alone at Churston without a servant, and that she had done the work of the house while the father was dying of a broken heart thousands of miles away on account of Yarde-Buller's conduct towards her.

After Kirkham's death, Yarde-Buller announced that Mrs. Yarde-Buller had been left a large fortune and her husband rejoined her the same day. While at Churston, upon this occasion, Yarde-Buller had been told by her husband out of the house, and told her to go into the streets. Repellent further testified that Yarde-Buller pulled her hair, kicked her and struck her in the face. Mrs. Yarde-Buller also stated that her husband's charges against her of unchastity and violence toward him.

Mrs. Yarde-Buller admitted that she defended herself with a kitchen knife. In regard to the statement made by Yarde-Buller on the witness stand that one night his wife insisted upon going to the Alhambra music hall, and afterwards to the Cafe Cavour, a resort frequented by gay people, respondent said Yarde-Buller took her to the Alhambra and later at the Cafe Cavour. As she did not have enough money to foot the bill a woman who had been supping at another table in the same place came to her assistance.

Mrs. Yarde-Buller denied the statements of her husband that she had behaved like a mad woman, and also denied having committed any acts of violence attributed to her by her husband. She also denied having committed adultery with Valentine Gaiden, a man who had been employed by her husband after her affairs and protect her from her husband's violence, paying him a considerable salary.

Mr. Gaiden, she admitted, had been living in the same house with her since December last. When the respondent was asked whether she did not think that continuing to live in the same house with Mr. Gaiden would destroy her reputation, she replied:

"That was thoroughly impeached when I took the name of Yarde-Buller."

After some corroborative evidence the case was again adjourned.

MICHIGAN DEMOCRATS.

DETROIT, July 28.—The Democratic state central committee went into secret session here today. The gold standard method was endeavored to keep control of the committee, but the financial complexion of those present has not been definitely determined.

THE JANESON CASE.

Comment of the English Press on the Verdict.

LONDON, July 28.—In commenting upon the sentence passed upon Dr. Janeson and his associates, the Graphic approves the verdict and expresses the belief that after the preliminary committee has inquired into the raid the crown will find it desirable to reduce the sentences.

The Daily Telegraph considers that the court has found a medium between indulgence and excessive rigor.

An editorial in the Times says: "The conclusion will commend itself to the general judgment of the law. The sentences vindicate the law without the appearance of vindictiveness." Of the future action with regard to Cecil Rhodes, the Times says: "Mr. Rhodes is a man of great ability and energy. He has been a great help to the government in the past, and it is not surprising that he should be treated with leniency. But it is doubtful whether the lenient action, even as propounded by Baron Russell, the lord chief justice, and presiding judge, could be successfully invoked to compel Mr. Rhodes to share his friend's punishment."

Mr. Chamberlain moves tomorrow for a committee to inquire into the administration of Rhodes, and an important discussion will ensue. The committee will be empowered to review part of the charter of the company's transactions.

The lobby correspondent of the Chronicle says of the sentences: "Among the members of the house of commons there is the strangest variety of opinion, varying from disappointment at the mildness to indignation at the severity of the sentences. Sir Richard Webster, the attorney general, being decidedly dissatisfied, and the prisoners would be treated as first class delinquents."

"I believe that Mr. Chamberlain was rather surprised at the severity of the sentences."

"As Dr. Janeson was leaving the court room many in the crowd tried to grasp his hand and shout, 'God bless you.'"

The Chronicle also has an interview with Dr. Janeson himself, in which he says he is surprised at the leniency of the sentence after Baron Russell's summing up. He said further that he and his friends had had no return to Africa as soon as their sentences had expired.

In an editorial the Chronicle says: "The sentences are merciful. At length the law is reduced to proper proportion."

"We are glad to be able to announce that Mr. Chamberlain has promised to let the special committee to investigate the administration of Rhodes, but he desires that a perfectly impartial chairman should be appointed."

FARGO, N. D., July 28.—The Populists are here in large numbers to attend the state convention tomorrow. There are a few "middle of the roaders" who want a straight party ticket nominated. They are, however, outnumbered, and the prevailing sentiment is largely for the Populists. The Populists will demand the congressman, auditor, insurance commissioner, two railroad commissioners, and the state treasurer. They will leave the other places on the ticket blank for the Democrats to fill in. The Populists are being booed tonight to head the Populist ticket. HEAT WAS AWFUL.

ST. LOUIS, July 28.—The terrible heat that has prevailed in this city during the past three days has been abated but little. Yesterday the signal service reported 97 degrees in the shade, but it was much hotter than this at other places. This was higher than the thermometer raised at any place in the state. The highest point reached by the mercury was 97 degrees at 4 p. m., and the heat shows no signs of abating.

THE TERMS OF SETTLEMENT.

CLEVELAND, July 28.—The first report of the settlement of the strike at the Brown hoisting works was erroneous. The terms of the settlement as given out by the company today and agreed to by the attorney of the strikers, are:

The grain men tried to take action to stiffen the rates, but they had poor success.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., July 28.—When the westward bound empire state express was about two miles west of Syracuse this afternoon it raced with six athletic young men on a sextuplet. Arrangements for the race were quickly completed several days ago. At this point is a stretch of cinder patch about four feet wide and a mile and a half long. As soon as the train hove in sight the sextuplet got under way. The "empire" was soon abreast and the race for a quarter of a mile was an even thing. At the end of half a mile the sextuplet was four lengths ahead. The train was then obliged to slow down, and the race was a pretty serious loss of money to the firm's creditors.

A MODERN JOSUAH.

LEVERING ACCEPTS THE PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION.

With a Nerve That Might Be Expected of a Prohibitionist Gold-bug, He Sees Himself the Man Who is Worthy of Votes if Bryan and McKinley Are Not.

BALTIMORE, July 28.—

Joshua Levering, of this city, was this evening officially notified of his nomination for the presidency of the United States by the Prohibitionist party. Prior to the notification, the Maryland Prohibitionist party, which has been elected in the various Maryland districts. They also paraded the streets of the city with banners and music, the line of march being led by the Prohibitionist party, where the notification meeting was held.

WHY DRAW PLATT'S NAME

Into this thing? I am chairman of the national committee. There is a factional fight in this state. It is not my purpose to add fuel to the flame. I would rather see the name of Platt drawn into the fight than to see the name of Bryan drawn into the fight.

"The meeting is for the purpose of planning the campaign in this section. I shall remain in town for the rest of the week, at least, and then return to Cleveland. Of course my time from now on will be devoted to the campaign."

When Mr. Hanna read of the action of the Democratic state committee in maintaining silence over the Chicago ticket, he said: "Well, if they keep this thing up, we won't have much to say about it. The election day means that there will be nothing done in New York state for Mr. Bryan until after September 14, at the very earliest. We will, therefore, have practically of them in their action."

During the evening a delegation from the tariff reform league called on Mr. Hanna and asked that he make tariff the issue, instead of the money question. Mr. Hanna said that he could not decide that question, but he would make the tariff the issue of the campaign.

Senator Stephen B. Elkins and Melville E. Ingalls, of the tariff reform league, called on Mr. Hanna during the evening, and Mrs. J. Ellen Foster, president of the Woman's Republican association of the United States, called and advised Mr. Hanna to have the campaign headquarters located in the west.

NEW YORK BONDS.

Bids Made Very Discouraging to the Comptroller.

NEW YORK, July 28.—In accordance with an advertisement calling for bids for $3,500,000 of 3 1/2 per cent. bonds of the City of New York, Comptroller Fitch opened the tenders today. The aggregate of the bids, twenty-two in number, amounted to only $1,010,000, the price ranging from 102 to 105, the result was very discouraging to the comptroller, at whose suggestion a year ago it was decided that future issues of bonds should be made payable in gold. The rate of interest being at the same time increased from 3 to 3 1/2 per cent. In Brooklyn $1,385,000 of 4 per cent. bonds are said to have been awarded today, but as only two bids have been received it was decided not to open the tenders until September 15.

PRISONERS MUTINY.

Shotguns Necessary to Bring Them Under Subjection.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., July 28.—While a gang of thirty prisoners in the United States penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth were on strike, a mutiny broke out among them. At a signal from George East, an Indian Territory desperado, the men broke for a cornfield. The guards fired on the prisoners, and all the prisoners were shot three times before he gave up. He is fatally wounded. Sam Mills and two large women were also shot. The wounded before they were run down. Into the penitentiary yard where 200 convicts were breaking bread, the guards went to open the gates and a second attempt at mutiny.
